- 1. Dutch, French and Belgian Communist delegates met in Brussels on 28 December 1948 to consider the Dutch request that the communal fund be drawn on to foster CPN activities in The Netherlands, protecting the war in Indonesia. Of primary importance among these activities is the "Committee for Help to Indonesia" established by the CPN to assist all victims of the Dutch Government's activities in the NEL.*
- 2. Cadoret (fnu), one of the French delegates, stated that the French section authorized the granting of assistance to the CPN. He then added that he had been instructed to criticize the BCP efforts in connection with the frontier workers and transvayments strikes because these strikes did not produce a general strike movement. Cadoret also stated that the ineffectiveness of these strikes might make it difficult for the BCP to obtain subsidies from the General Action Fund. Navier Relecom defended the BCP on the grounds that the French were responsible for the failure of thesstrike because they had not opposed the replacement of Belgian strikers by Frenchmen.
- 3. At the conclusion of the meeting the Dutch request for assistance was approved and another meeting was scheduled for the end of January.
